

- 1) What we tend to do is we set the _____ low enough for our own _____, but not so low that other _____ can make it.
- 2) It is possible to spend an entire _____ in the household of _____, giving every appearance of diligent work and faithful service—and yet to be totally out of _____ with heaven’s joy.
- 3) People often assume that the elder son represents a true _____, by that interpretation, the elder brother really needed nothing more than an _____.
- 4) Jesus was never accused of standing _____ the _____ with His arms _____ and His nose in the _____.
- 5) If, like the elder brother, you believe that God ought to _____ you because you have worked so hard to _____ Him, then _____ may be your helper but He is not your _____.
- 6) When we don’t have _____ for the _____, we take a stab at the very _____ of God.
- 7) “The very life of the church depends on her _____ in fulfilling the Lord’s commission. ... Where there is no active _____ for others, _____ wanes, and _____ grows dim.” DA825
- 8) The parable of the prodigal is not just a “warm and fuzzy feel-good _____, but it is a powerful _____ call with a very earnest _____.”

Scriptures: Matthew 9:10-12; Luke 15:25-32; Matthew 7:21-23; Luke 15:1-2; John 2:1-2
Part 4 – The Elder Brother

- 1) What we tend to do is we set the _____ low enough for our own _____, but not so low that other _____ can make it.
- 2) It is possible to spend an entire _____ in the household of _____, giving every appearance of diligent work and faithful service—and yet to be totally out of _____ with heaven’s joy.
- 3) People often assume that the elder son represents a true _____, by that interpretation, the elder brother really needed nothing more than an _____.
- 4) Jesus was never accused of standing _____ the _____ with His arms _____ and His nose in the _____.
- 5) If, like the elder brother, you believe that God ought to _____ you because you have worked so hard to _____ Him, then _____ may be your helper but He is not your _____.
- 6) When we don’t have _____ for the _____, we take a stab at the very _____ of God.
- 7) “The very life of the church depends on her _____ in fulfilling the Lord’s commission. ... Where there is no active _____ for others, _____ wanes, and _____ grows dim.” DA825
- 8) The parable of the prodigal is not just a “warm and fuzzy feel-goo _____, but it is a powerful _____ call with a very earnest _____.”

Scriptures: Matthew 9:10-12; Luke 15:25-32; Matthew 7:21-23; Luke 15:1-2; John 2:1-2

Part 4 – The Elder Brother